INTRODUCTION TO THE READINGS THIS WEEKEND

First Reading

God's priests here receive a warning. God's word and his blessings are not to be tampered with. His righteous demands are not to be overlooked.

Second Reading

St. Paul rejoices because people have accepted the gospel as 'God's message and not some human thinking.' With God's help, may we do the same.

Gospel

Ambition and arrogance are permanent temptations for people in positions of influence. Our Lord gives a simple but direct remedy: 'The greatest among you must be your servant.'
